

MODERN X
BarnDoor
SERIES

The Barn Door Series design is characterized by the traditional barn-style X-brace combined with sleek, contemporary elements, such as a minimalist dark finish and clean lines. This door design would suit the following home styles Modern Farmhouse, Industrial or Barn-Inspired Homes, Rustic Contemporary, Country or Rural Homes and Colonial or Heritage-Style Homes.

This design complements the following home styles:

Modern Farmhouse – The X-brace detailing is iconic for farmhouse designs, but the sleek, dark finish adds a modern touch that complements contemporary farmhouse homes.

Industrial or Barn-Inspired Homes – These doors evoke the rugged, practical aesthetic of barn doors, making them perfect for homes with an industrial or barn-inspired architecture.

Rustic Contemporary – For homes that mix rustic charm with modern, minimalist elements, these doors provide the perfect blend of classic and contemporary design.

Country or Rural Homes – The traditional X-brace detailing makes these doors a great fit for homes in rural or country settings, adding a touch of refined elegance to their rugged appeal.

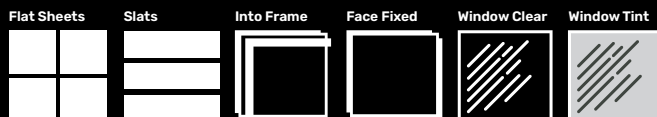

Colonial or Heritage-Style Homes – The structure and symmetry of the X design with windows can also work for certain colonial or traditional homes, adding a modern twist to classic architecture.
